This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

* This is the lady whose undoubted existence, if it could be proved, would settle the Grey de Powis Peerage claims. Sir Roger Kynaston, Knt., of Hordley, married Richard Lord Grey de Powis's only sister, but he was alleged to have left a daughter, the above Elizabeth. In [G. 15 Salop] at the Coll. of Arms is the first mention known of such a lady—that is the original copy of the above pedigree of 1584 (page 61), and her name is an addition in a different hand and ink. See 'Feudal Barons of Powys' by Morris C. Jones, p. 122. The earlier writing was as above, "Doughter of Robert Corbet, Knt.," and the Heralds on examination rejected "Eliza, da. of Rich. Grey, Lord Powis," as spurious.

† In Harl. 615 he is made son of Thomas Ludlow and Katherine Farley. This is evidently an error, for in the same pedigree, but in another hand, she is said to have had no issue.

* Harl. 1241 makes her da. of Sir William Patrick.

† This generation has been inserted in error. The inquisition post mortem, after the death of Urian de St. Pierre, taken in the year 1295, declares that his heir was his grandson Urian, then aged 16, who was the son of his deceased son John, by Idonea his former wife, and that Margaret, John's widow, had dower in Shipbrook. A stone slab was found at St. Pierre, near Chepstow, bearing the inscription: "Ici git le cors V. de Sent Pere preez pur li en bone manere Ke JH'V pur sa pasivn de Pheces li dont pardun. Amen P'R." This slab, from its character, probably commemorates Urian who died 1295. ('Archæological Journal,' 1848, p. 164.)

† Duke's 'Shropshire,' pp. 103-4, quotes a petition to the Lord Chancellor, which declares that the Spencers, being under the displeasure of Edward III., a younger son married Margaret, daughter and heiress of William Cousin of co. Hants, and had issue John, who, living with his grandfather, took and used his name, and was known as "Spenser alias Cousyn," which name continued in the family till 1422, when a deed of entail was made by William Spenser alias Cousyn; but that the name is now written Spenser only. The only clue to date in Duke's quotation from "MS. notes concerning the lands of Thomas Spenser in Fenyton, co. Salop," is the statement that "my father came to full age 2 July 1509."

* Another pedigree, in Harl. MS. 615, folio 263b, agrees with Harl. MS. 1396, but the name is spelled throughout "Warnnerton," and, on the monument in Worfield Church to Sir George Bromley, his wife is described as "daughter and sole heire of John Wannerton of Hallon, Gent."

Sir George Bromley, Knt., of Hallon, or Hawne, in Worfield parish, is said in the Bromley pedigree (antea) to have married the daughter and heir of John Waverton, gent. In 38 Henry VIII., 1546, John Waverton did homage for the rectory of Albrighton (Originalia, 5 p. 38 Henry VIII., rot. 20); and, in 38 Eliz., 1595, Jane Bromley, widow, was seised of the same rectory (Originalia, 1 p. 38 Eliz., rot. 103). The pedigree occurs in the 1584 Visitation of Shropshire with the same arms, and the name spelled "Warnerton."

Further, in 1571, Robert Cook, Clarenceux, exemplified by patent these same arms to John Wannerton of Hallon, Salop, descended from Wannerton, co. Worcester ('Visitation of London, 1634,' vol. ii., p. 361). Wannerton is a small hamlet in the parish of Kidderminster, where the surname existed in benefactions to the poor so late as 1644. (Nash's 'History of Worcestershire,' ii., pp. 39, 321.)

† All of these are omitted in Shrewsbury MS.; George occurs in Harl. 615, which, however, omits the marriage of Francis Bromley.

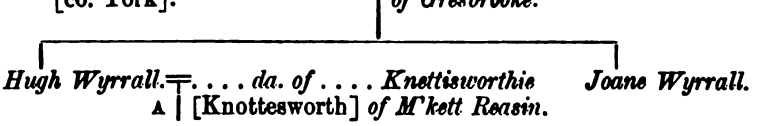
[ARMS.—Argent, two lions passant-guardant sable, on a chief gules three covered cups or. CREST.—A lion's gamb erased sable, holding a covered cup or.‡]



* We cannot clearly trace the connection of this family with Shropshire; but in the records of the Mercers' Guild of Shrewsbury a "Rog' Wyrall" was admitted free of the guild in 1457-8, and paid a fine of xxˢ; also a John Wyrrall was churchwarden of St. Chad's, Shrewsbury, in 1467-8. (Salop Arch. Soc., viii., pp. 269, 368; see also 'Herald and Genealogist,' vi., p. 328.)

† These are the arms of Wyrrall of Byknor, co. Gloucester (Visitations 1583 and 1625). The error in attaching them to this pedigree seems to have arisen at the Shropshire Visitation of 1584. (See Add. MS. 14,314, fo. 13, where, at the top of the sheet, there appears in pencil the word "Yorkse," as if the Herald thought it should have been entered in that county, instead of in Salop.)

‡ This coat and crest were granted, or more probably confirmed, by Barker, 29 Hen. VIII. (1537-8), to "Gervase Wiriall of . . . . in com. Ebor'." In Edmondson's 'Heraldry,' following Harl. MS. 1359, the chief is sable, and the same is attributed to Wyrall of Loversal, Ebor., in an old MS. at Melbury, in the possession of the Earl of Ilchester. ('Arch. Journal,' xv., p. 171.)

[In a list of Banners, temp. Henry VIII. ('Coll.
